JALSA GAH ETIQUETTES

- ✓ Remember the true purpose of Jalsa Salana is to strengthen our bond with Allah and increase in religious knowledge and brotherhood.
- ✓ Spend your time in remembrance of Allah by reciting Durood Sharif, Istaghfar, and Dua.
- ✓ Listen to the program in prayerful silence, keeping your heads covered with topi in respect of the occasion.
- ✓ Following the sunnah of our Holy Prophet (SAW), greet everyone with “Assalamo Alaikum” and a smile whether you know them or not.
 - ✓ Show consideration for each other.

SALAT ETIQUETTES

- ✓ The most important act performed as a community of faithful is congregational Salat. When the Adhan is called, begin to make the rows for prayer, filling the first row first.
- ✓ Keep Salat lines straight, without gaps—place shoes on the racks outside prayer halls and stand shoulder to shoulder in prayer halls.
 - ✓ Begin a new row for Salat only when the one in front of you is full.
- ✓ Do not place bags or children between worshippers, place them in front of you.
- ✓ After finishing your Salat, refrain from speaking until everyone has finished Salat.
 - ✓ Dress modestly and properly

CHAIR ETIQUETTES

- ✓ Only the elderly and those with physical disabilities should be seated on chairs.
 - ✓ Fill the first rows first.
 - ✓ Children and young kids should not be on the chairs.
 - ✓ Children and youth accompanying elderly please sit on the carpet area.
- ✓ At Salat time, move forward and fill all empty chairs to sit shoulder to shoulder.
- ✓ Do not leave your bags on chairs if you go to the floor to offer Salat. Take them with you or place on the floor so that others may use the chairs for Salat.
